BLENHEIM SCHOOLS

Job Advertisement

Teacher of Games

Hall School Wimbledon

Full-time | Permanent

Required from: November 2026

Salary: Competitive, based on experience and HSW pay scales

At Hall School Wimbledon, we are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic Teacher of Games to contribute to our sporting provision. This is an exciting opportunity for an inspiring teacher to develop pupils' sporting skills, physical confidence and enjoyment of Games.

We are looking for a teacher who can engage pupils with different interests and abilities, helping every child to participate, improve and take pride in their progress. The successful candidate will promote teamwork, resilience and fair play, encouraging pupils to enjoy physical activity and develop healthy habits.

The role may also involve teaching in other subject areas, according to the successful candidate's skills and experience and the needs of the school. Applicants should indicate any additional subjects they could offer in their letter of application.

THE ROLE

Working collaboratively with colleagues, the Teacher of Games will:

- plan and deliver engaging, well-sequenced Games lessons that develop sporting skills, understanding and confidence
- encourage teamwork, resilience, fair play and enjoyment of physical activity
- adapt activities to meet individual needs, including SEND, with appropriate support and challenge for all pupils
- maintain safe practice and positive behaviour, assess progress and give clear feedback to help pupils improve
- contribute to school sport, enrichment and sporting events as agreed, and teach other subjects where appropriate

BLENHEIM SCHOOLS

Job Advertisement

THE PERSON

We are seeking someone who:

- has a genuine enthusiasm for Games and for helping young people enjoy and succeed in sport
- is an effective teacher with strong subject knowledge, clear organisation and high expectations
- can engage pupils of different abilities and build their confidence, independence and willingness to participate
- builds positive relationships and communicates clearly with pupils, families and colleagues
- works collaboratively, offers flexibility and is committed to inclusion, safe practice and safeguarding

In return, we offer the opportunity to work in a supportive and ambitious school community with engaged pupils, committed staff and a strong sense of purpose. The successful candidate will help pupils develop their strengths and make a positive contribution to the wider life of the school.

ABOUT BLENHEIM SCHOOLS

Blenheim Schools is a growing family of innovative, high-quality independent schools committed to enabling outstanding futures for every student. Our ethos centres on truly understanding each child, their talents, character and aspirations by providing a personalised, ambitious education that helps every child to thrive. We deliver a broad, enriching curriculum supported by tailored teaching and exceptional pastoral care. We celebrate individuality, nurture confidence and champion every learner so they can discover their strengths and achieve their potential.

Joining Blenheim Schools means becoming part of a collaborative, forward-thinking community that values creativity, inclusion and professional growth. Our teams are united by a shared belief in the power of education to transform lives and by a commitment to delivering outstanding experiences for students and families.

HOW TO APPLY

Please complete the school's application form and provide a letter of application addressed to Mr Hunt (Deputy Head Academic), outlining your suitability for the role and the contribution you would make to the school.

If you would like to discuss the role or arrange a visit, please contact Mr Hunt on sxh@hsw.co.uk.

HSW is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from all suitably qualified candidates. We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be subject to all appropriate safeguarding and pre-employment checks.